FACT SHEET

Electrical and Computer Engineering Department Graduate Student Scholarships

The Electrical and Computer Engineering Department now offers a limited number of $1,000 competitive, merit-based scholarships to incoming graduate students.

All students entering MS or PhD studies in computer engineering, electrical engineering or telecommunications engineering are eligible to apply. Criteria to be considered in awarding these scholarships are:

1) GPA
2) GRE scores
3) Letters of recommendation
4) Honors and awards received
5) Published research

The application deadline for Fall 2020 scholarships is July 15, 2020. Fall 2020 scholarships will be awarded on a rolling basis starting February 2020, and students are encouraged to apply early.

Students who have been or will be receiving full financial support (e.g. teaching assistantship or research assistantship) will not be considered for this $1000 graduate scholarship
